Any item intended for publication should reach this office not later than Wednesday or we will be forced to carry it over for the coming week.

HOW ABOUT IT?

Mr. Real Estate Man, Merchant, Banker, Lawyer, Farmer, etcetera, what about getting together and starting a Knox County U. S. Farm Loan Association? Let us try to develop the and not sit and think or just sit. Let The Advocate know and we will publish a list of those who favor the scheme. Someone must make a move. Movement is life, the lack of it decay.

MR. FARMER

We wish to call your attention to the Shorthorn bull advertising of M. B. Arbuckle, of Richmond, Ky., which also appears elsewhere in The Advocate. Last spring he shipped four good Shorthorns to Clay County and could not supply further demand. Last fall a six weeks calf, by his bull out of a scrub cow brought $26 at the butcher's. Six months old calves out of mountain cows are bringing $50 to $58. Jerseys produce good calves by these bulls. Write Mr. Arbuckle at once should you need a good bull.

PROCLAMATION

No greater problem can engage our serious attention than that of conserving the boy life of our State and Nation; and there has never been a time in our history when the need of this conservation was more apparent than today. Therefore, I, Edwin P. Morrow, Governor of the State of Kentucky, in the hope of arousing the men of the State to a sense of their responsibility toward their own boys and the boys of their community, and the further hope of strengthening the ties that ought to bind fathers and sons together in good fellowship, do issue his proclamation, and I request that the week from February 16th to 22nd be set apart as

FATHER AND SON WEEK

I earnestly urge that such special observances as have been planned by the churches, the Y. M. C. A., and other organizations may receive the patriotic support of all of our citizens.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of the State of Kentucky to be affixed in the City of Frankfort, this 22nd day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

Edwin P. Morrow, Governor.

BETTER DISTRIBUTION

OF NATIONAL BANKS

The decentralization of the country's banking power, formerly so largely concentrated in a few large cities, is vividly indicated in an analysis which has just been completed relative to the geographical location at this time of the country's 120 biggest National Banks. The list includes all National Banks whose Resources on November 17, 1919, amounted to $25,000,000 or more.

The statement referred to also illustrates the astounding growth which has taken place in the country's banking power in the past twenty years, or since 1899. On September 7, 1899, there were 19 National Banks in the United States having resources of as much as $25, 000,000 each; and of these 19 banks 14, or 74 per cent, were located in New York City, one in Boston one in Philadelphia, two in Chicago and one in St. Louis.

On November 17, 1919, there were 120 National Banks having Resources of more than $25,000,000; of these, twenty-five, or less than 21 per cent, as compared with 74 per cent in 1899, were located in New York State (all of the 74 per cent in the latter year, being in New York City); 17 of the biggest banks now being in Pennsylvania; 9 in California; 5 each in Illinois, Missouri and Texas; 6 in Virginia; 5 each in Massachusetts, Minnesota and Ohio; 3 each in Colorado and Oregon; 2 each in Georgia, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Nebraska, New Jersey and Washington; and 1 each in Alabama, District of Columbia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Wisconsin.

The Year 1920 Will Be One Fraught With Momentous Making Of History

In the libraries of the future, the historical volumes, marked 1920, will deal with a critical period of the world's history.

The whole world is now in a frenzy of discontent. In the old world new parties with new policies, each striving for control, are walking hand in hand with the spectre of distrust, where they are not already dying in the flame of fratricidal war.

In the United States profiteering has become a science, all sense of value is gone, Bolshevism is raising its vicious head, and labor and capital, by passing the buck, each to the other, are leaving the middle class bearing the brunt of the burden.

It is a critical period through which this world is passing, and one that demands the whole-souled interest of every thinking man and woman in this world.

You can not perform your duties as a citizen of this country unless you think right; you can not think right unless you are fully informed; you can not be fully informed unless you read a daily newspaper.

As a citizen, and as a voter, you wish to vote intelligently. You wish to know what the leaders of the big political parties are offering as the panacea of this present condition. In order to perform this duty intelligently, you must have access to the news as it is published day by day.

Granted that it is your duty to read a daily newspaper, it is also your duty to read the paper that will give you the most news, particularly when its cost is the same as the others.

The Louisville Herald has the largest circulation of any morning newspaper in Kentucky, and as all Louisville newspapers are sold at the same price, this is self-evident proof that it is considered the best paper by the most people.

The Louisville Herald, gives you all the news from the Associated Press, that wonderful news gathering organization, which covers the entire world with its list of correspondents; in addition it gives you all the news from Europe that is gathered by the Universal News Service; this in addition to The Herald's own list of special correspondents and its editorial staff. No newspaper can give you more than this—few can give you as much.

The Louisville Herald, apart from its general news value, thoroughly covers the financial world, and keeps you fully informed as to the daily fluctuations on all marketable commodities. News of the worlds of sports is more than a tabulation of sporting events, as compiled for The Herald's sport page.

The Louisville Herald contains more features of general family interest than we have space to specify in the short space of this advertisement; but we will say this much, that there is something of interest to every member of your family in every issue. We will, if you are unfamiliar with The Herald, gladly send you a sample copy on request. We would suggest that in order to protect yourself against a raise in subscription price for the coming year, that you give your order to your local agent now; if there is none in your town, send in the coupon below.
